Memorandum of Understanding

Introduction

Believing in the significance of academic and cultural understanding and cooperation, Vidyalankar Dnyanapeeth Trust's School of Information Technology, Mumbai, India and the University of South Carolina Beaufort, Bluffton, South Carolina, USA have agreed to initiate the process to enhance relations, exchange expertise, and boost academic development for both institutions which will also be in the general interest of students and staff. This memorandum of understanding (MOU) is a step in the said direction and delineates the main features of cooperation between the two organizations, particularly in academic development, research, exchange of students, faculty, and staff; and development of educational opportunities to enrich campus internationalization at each institution. While this memorandum is not to be considered a contract, the following articles shall be explored and discussed by both parties in good will and in good faith.

Article 1

Vidyalankar School of Information Technology (VSIT) and the University of South Carolina Beaufort (USCB) "have agreed to explore the possibility of establishing a relationship in order to advance global understanding, research, teaching relationships and faculty and student exchanges.

Article 2

The two parties shall endeavor to encourage faculty and staff from both institutions to explore possible areas where instruction can be enriched through an electronic forum between classes. The purpose of the electronic forum would be to connect undergraduate or graduate students in India to students in the United States around a specific course topic, problem, or research project for the purpose of providing students with greater global perspectives on the course content or discipline. Both the Institutions will discuss the mechanism, technicalities of delivering video conferencing, an electronic forum, and/or web-based chat rooms and if the terms, conditions and financial implications are mutually agreed by and between the two Institutions, an agreement shall be executed between the parties incorporating all the agreed terms and conditions, which will be signed by the designated authorized persons from both the parties.

Rob

Article 3

Both the Institutions shall explore the feasibility of developing a select number of academic curriculum partnerships. These may ultimately be in the form of dual-degree (2X2 or similar configuration), or other creative curriculum partnerships to enrich undergraduate and/or graduate study opportunities.

Article 4

Both parties will explore the possibility of creating awareness of the undergraduate and graduate programs available at the partner institution, advising students as to the criteria and deadlines for admission, and accordingly assist students with the submission of applications to the graduate programs.

Article 5

The Second Party will negotiate a discounted non-resident tuition rate for students from the Partner institution. The scholarship will be extended for a total of (to be negotiated) semesters providing the student is making adequate progress in the program.

Article 6

The two parties shall encourage the exchange of faculty and staff from both institutions for teaching, professional development, and/or research endeavors; and/or encourage staff to carry out non-residential partnerships to develop academic and scientific research in areas and fields of interest to both parties.

Article 7

The two parties agree to encourage the offering of short, specialized courses and training sessions in areas needed by both institutions (for example, through short-term summer "Discovery" Programs hosted on the campus).

Article 8

The two parties shall encourage student visits from both institutions. However before implementing, all procedures, mechanisms to study, the cost and share of both the parties to implement these visits, terms and conditions including financial implications for the Institutions if mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto shall be incorporated in an agreement to be executed between the parties.

Memorandum of Understanding

Introduction

Believing in the significance of academic and cultural understanding and cooperation, Vidyalkar Dnyanapeeth Trust's Vidyalkar School of Information Technology, Mumbai, India, and the University of South Carolina Aiken, Aiken, South Carolina, USA, have agreed to initiate the process to enhance relations, exchange of expertise, and boost academic development for both the Institutions which will also be in the general interest of students and staff at both the Institutions. This memorandum of understanding (MOU) is a step in the said direction and delineates the main features of cooperation between the two organizations, particularly in academic development, research, exchange of students, faculty, and staff; and development of educational opportunities to enrich campus internationalization at each Institution. While this memorandum is not to be considered a contract, the following articles shall be explored and discussed by both parties in good will and in good faith.

Article 1

Vidyalkar School of Information Technology (VSIT), hereinafter shall be referred to as "the First Party" and the University of South Carolina Aiken (USC Aiken), hereinafter shall be referred to as "the Second Party," have agreed to explore the possibility of establishing a relationship in order to advance global understanding, research, teaching relationships and faculty and student exchanges.

Article 2

The two parties shall endeavor to encourage faculty and staff from both Institutions to explore possible areas where instruction can be enriched through an electronic forum between classes. The purpose of the electronic forum would be to connect undergraduate or graduate students in India to students in the United States around a specific course topic, problem, or research project for the purpose of providing students with greater global perspectives on the course content or discipline. Both the Parties will discuss the mechanism, technicalities of delivering video conferencing, an electronic forum, and/or web-based chat rooms and if the terms and conditions, financial implications are mutually agreed by and between the two parties, an agreement shall be executed between the parties incorporating all the agreed terms and conditions, which will be signed by the designated authorized persons from both the parties.

Article 3

Both the parties shall explore the feasibility of developing a select number of academic curriculum partnerships. These may ultimately be in the form of Transfer Program (2+2 or similar configuration), or other creative curriculum partnerships to enrich undergraduate and/or graduate study opportunities.

Article 4

Both parties will explore the possibility of creating awareness of the undergraduate and graduate programs available at the partner institution, advising students as to the criteria and deadlines for admission, and accordingly assist students with the submission of applications to the graduate / undergraduate programs.

Article 5

The Second Party will negotiate a discounted non-resident tuition rate for students from the Partner institution. The scholarship will be extended for a total of (to be negotiated) semesters provided the student is making adequate progress (2.0 GPA in courses taken at USC Aiken and earning at least 12 semester hours credit each semester taken at USC Aiken) in the program.

Article 6

The two parties shall encourage the exchange of faculty and staff from both Institutions for teaching, professional development, and/or research endeavors; and/or encourage staff to carry out non-residential partnerships to develop academic and scientific research in areas and fields of interest to both parties.

Article 7

The two parties agree to encourage the offering of short, specialized courses and training sessions at Undergraduate and Graduate Level in areas needed by both Institutions (for example, through short-term summer "Discovery" Programs hosted on the campus).

Article 8

The two parties shall encourage student visits from both Institutions. However before implementing, all procedures, mechanisms to study, the cost and share of both the parties to implement these visits, terms and conditions including financial implications for the Institutions if mutually agreed by and between the parties hereto shall be incorporated in an agreement to be executed between the parties.

Article 9

The two parties will encourage exchanges of ideas, processes and procedures in student life and campus leadership.

Article 10

One liaison officer from each Institution will be appointed to follow up the implementation of the MOU and to brief the officials in both Institutions about progress achieved.

Article 11

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary stated herein, the parties herein agree that before implementing any program/activities under this MOU/arrangement, the parties will, negotiate, discuss all the terms and conditions including financial and other implications on both the Institution and if the parties mutually agree, the agreed terms and conditions shall be so recorded in writing in an agreement to be executed by and between the parties and shall be signed by the authorized representative of the parties herein.

Article 12

This Memorandum of Understanding is typically valid for one (1) year from the date signed by both parties and is automatically renewed on a year to year basis unless otherwise revoked by either party in writing by giving 180 days prior notice to the other party for termination of the agreement. Students enrolled in this program at VSIT prior to such termination of the agreement will be allowed to complete their study at USC Aiken should they meet admission requirements.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO, USA
VIDYALANKAR DNYANAPEETH TRUST'S VIDYALANKAR SCHOOL OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY, INDIA

The University of Toledo (Ohio, USA) and Vidyalkar Dnyanapeeth Trust's Vidyalkar School of Information Technology (Mumbai, India) (hereinafter "VSIT"), wishing to establish cooperative relations between the two institutions, and especially to develop academic and cultural interchange between them through mutual assistance in the areas of education and research, hereby resolve to cooperate in the development of programs and academic affiliations subject to the following agreed upon terms and conditions contained herein.

Article 1: Objective of the Agreement.

The purpose of this Agreement will be to establish a mutually-beneficial educational and pedagogical relationship between The University of Toledo and VSIT. This Agreement establishes the formal understanding of the scope of operations between the two institutions, and commits to writing the intent and mutual assent of both parties to engage in the following activities.

Article 2: Scope of Agreement.

In this Agreement:

1. "Exchange" means a one-for-one exchange of Participants from each party, if applicable under this Agreement;
2. "Participants" means students or residents participating in the program or activity implemented herein;
3. "Home Institution" means the university from which the Participant intends to graduate;
4. "Host Institution" means the university that has agreed to receive the Participants from the Home Institution;
5. "Faculty" means academic personnel employed by party for teaching and/or research.

This Agreement will be carried out, subject to the availability of funds of either party, and subject to the authorized approval of The University of Toledo and VSIT. Activities engaged in under this Agreement include:

- a) Defining the terms on which the Articulation Programs (2+2) will operate;
- b) Sharing information on research and education programs;
- c) Sharing information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their educational and research programs;
- d) Jointly proposing and engaging in research or training programs sponsored by funding agencies, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein;
- e) Exchanging faculty and students for limited periods of time for the purpose of education and/or research.

Initially, it is expected that only VSIT students will be attending The University of Toledo, and no University of Toledo students will attend VSIT. The purpose of this Memorandum is to begin discussion on programs for VSIT students to enroll in and complete courses in the undergraduate programs at The University of Toledo.

As this articulation program matures, mechanisms for awarding a University of Toledo degree will be discussed and considered for approval at a later date. Furthermore, any details regarding faculty exchange for this program or for research collaboration will be discussed and considered for approval at a later date.

Initial 2+2 undergraduate degree programs between The University of Toledo and VSIT include the following:

- 1) Program leading to The University of Toledo Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree. Program Liaison Officer, General Requirements and Credit Transfer are outlined in Appendix 1 to this Memorandum.
- 2) Program leading to The University of Toledo Bachelor of Science in Data Science degree. Program Liaison Officer, General Requirements and Credit Transfer are outlined in Appendix 2 to this Memorandum.
- 3) Program leading to The University of Toledo Bachelor of Science in Information Technology degree. Program Liaison Officer, General Requirements and Credit Transfer are outlined in Appendix 3 to this Memorandum.

Article 3: Implementation of Agreement as applied to individual programs.

1. Liaison Officer. For each program or activity described above, each party designates a Liaison Officer to develop and coordinate all activities relative to the program or activity as follows.

University: The University of Toledo
 Victor Finch
 Director, International Admission
 2801 W. Bancroft Street, MS#132
 Toledo, Ohio 43606

VSIT: Vidyalankar School of Information Technology
 c/o Vidyalankar Dnyanapeeth Trust
 Ms. Shweta Apte
 Chief Executive Officer – Global Pathway Programs
 Pearl Centre, Snapati Bapat Marg
 Dadar (W), Mumbai 400 028

2. Should additional specific terms be necessary to the program or activity under this Agreement, the parties will reach a written, signed agreement prior to the starting date of the program or activity.

Article 4: General program requirements.

1. Tuition and fees. Participants from VSIT attending The University of Toledo will be assessed standard tuition and fees including the out-of-state surcharge. Participants will have equal access to University of Toledo scholarships for which they qualify. Participants will be responsible for paying all other fees and expenses, including but not limited to tuition, living expenses, health insurance, fees associated with the acquisition of a visa and other expenses while in the U.S.
2. Housing and travel. The Host Institution may coordinate the arrangement of lodging for visiting Participants and Faculty, but all expenses incurred for travel, lodging, and other incidental costs associated with the program (laboratory fees, special activity fees, etc.) will be the responsibility of each individual Participant.

3. Participant conduct and academic policy. While at the Host Institution, Participants are subject to the student conduct and academic policies of the Host Institution for matters specifically related to their program. All Participants must adhere to all course load requirements for student visas under federal and state laws. Failure to follow such laws will result in immediate expulsion from The University of Toledo. Both The University of Toledo and VSIT retain sole discretion to dismiss a Participant from the program at any time for failure to maintain appropriate standards of conduct according to the Hosting Institution's policies and standards. Participant so dismissed will be deregistered from all classes, all tuition and fees will be forfeited in accordance with each party's policy, and the Participant so dismissed will be expelled from student housing and escorted to a public transit center by a designated official. The Host Institution will not be responsible for any fees due to a dismissal or expulsion as such will be the responsibility of the relevant Participant or Faculty. Notice of such dismissal or expulsion must be sent to the Dean of Students, or equivalent office, at the Participant's Home Institution.
4. The University of Toledo retains at all times the ultimate authority over all admission and subsequent academic decisions respective to its institution, and VSIT retains all rights respective to its institution. In addition to assuring that coursework credit will transfer, all Participants from VSIT must have attained University of Toledo's required score on the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) (or alternative International English Language Testing System (IELTS)) and other test scores required for their respective degree program. If it is determined that a Participant does not have a sufficient level of English proficiency, they will be required to undertake appropriate English as a Second Language (ESL) education prior to formal admission to the Program.
5. The University of Toledo will supply all administrative services applicable to the program for this Agreement for the academic year regarding Participants attending The University of Toledo and VSIT will coordinate efforts for Participants attending VSIT. The University of Toledo does not assume any liability for hospital or medical fees for the VSIT's Participants.

Article 5: Term, and Termination.

This Agreement will commence the Effective Date identified below and remain in effect for a period of five (5) years, and may be amended or extended upon written agreement by both parties. This Agreement may be cancelled at any time, for any reason by either party in writing with 90 days notice. In the event that the Agreement is not renewed or is otherwise terminated, Participants may be allowed to continue the applicable program as mutually agreed between the parties for the balance of the Home Institution's academic year.

Article 6: Miscellaneous.

1. Indemnification. VSIT agrees to indemnify and to hold The University of Toledo harmless and immune from any and all claims for injury or damages arising from this Agreement which are attributable to VSIT's own actions or omissions or those of its trustees, officers, agents, employees, subcontractors, suppliers, third parties utilized by VSIT, or joint venturers while acting under this Agreement. To the extent permitted by Ohio law, including but not limited to Ohio Revised Code Chapter 2743, The University of Toledo agrees to be liable for the acts and omissions of its officers and employees engaged in the scope of their employment arising under this Agreement.
2. Insurance.

- a. Home Institution shall ensure that its Participants and Faculty obtain and maintain comprehensive health insurance including medical evacuation and repatriation benefits when participating under this Agreement with minimum coverage as specified below in US dollars. Such insurance will provide worldwide coverage.
 1. Medical Expense (accident/sickness)—$100,000 per incident
 2. Accidental Death/Dismemberment—$10,000
 3. Emergency Medical Evacuation—$50,000
 4. Repatriation of Remains—$10,000
 - b. Each party shall provide Participants and Faculty with professional liability insurance coverage for claims which may arise as a result of the actions undertaken or performed, or failed to be undertaken or performed, by the Participants and Faculty under this Agreement. Such professional liability insurance shall provide worldwide coverage for Participants and Faculty, provided that any claim and any legal proceeding is pursued within the United States of America.
 - c. Each party shall provide to the other, upon request, certificates of insurance or other documents evidencing the required insurance coverage.
3. No agency. Nothing herein will be construed to create an agency relationship between the Home and Host Institution, or any employment relationships between the institutions for any Faculty or staff member provided under the exchange program. The parties are independent contractors and no legal relationship is created by this Agreement.
 4. Compliance with laws. The parties will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in their respective countries in performing their obligations hereunder.
 5. Anti-Kickback Enforcement Act of 1986, Public Law 99-634 (41 USCA §§51-58). By agreeing to this binding Agreement, the transacting parties (1) certify that they have not paid kickbacks directly or indirectly to any employee of The University of Toledo for the purpose of obtaining this or any other agreement or purchase order from The University of Toledo and; (2) agree to cooperate fully with any Federal Agency investigating a possible violation of the Act. Furthermore, both parties recognize their duties under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977 (15 USCA §§78dd-1) which makes it unlawful for certain classes of persons and entities to make payments to foreign government officials to assist in obtaining or retaining business.
 6. Clery Act. The University of Toledo Police Department is required by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act ("Clery Act") to report specific crime information in certain circumstances. In the event that The University of Toledo is required to report crime statistics on or around the campus of VSIT, VSIT agrees to provide the required crime statistics upon request.
 7. Notice. Any notice to either party hereunder must be in writing signed by the party giving it, and will be deemed given when mailed postage prepaid by postal service first class, certified, or express mail, or other overnight mail service, or hand delivered, when addressed as follows:

To University: The University of Toledo
Vice President of Enrollment

8. Use of logos, etc. Neither the Home Institution nor the Host Institution may use any identifying marks of the other without the express written permission of the other party.
9. Equal Opportunity. Both VSIT and The University of Toledo subscribe to a policy of equal opportunity and will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, ancestry, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military or veteran status, the presence of a disability, genetic information, familial status, political affiliation and participation in protected activities.
10. Authoritative Version. The English version of this Agreement will be the authoritative version of the Agreement for all purposes. In the event of a conflict between the English version and any translation of this Agreement, the English version will control.
11. Severability. If any section or provision of this Agreement is held illegal, unenforceable or in conflict with any law by a court of competent jurisdiction, such Section or provision of this Agreement will be deemed severed from this Agreement and the validity of the remainder of this Agreement will not be affected thereby.
12. Whole Agreement and Amendments. This Agreement contains the entire agreement between the parties hereto and will not be modified, amended or supplemented, or any rights herein waived, unless such amendment or modification to this Agreement is (i) in writing; (ii) refers to this Agreement; and (iii) executed by an authorized representative of each party. This Agreement supersedes any and all previous agreements, whether written or oral, between the parties.
13. Choice of law. All questions relating to the validity, interpretation, performance or enforcement of this Agreement, and any claims arising from or related to this Agreement, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio, without regard to the principle of conflict of laws. Any litigation arising from or related to this Agreement may be brought only in the federal or state courts of Ohio with appropriate jurisdiction, and the parties irrevocably consent to the jurisdiction and venue of such courts.

INTENDING TO BE LEGALLY BOUND, by signing below, each party acknowledges its agreement with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and each signatory represents that he/she is authorized to sign on behalf of and to bind his/her party to all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement as of _____ (the "Effective Date").
