Report on 'International Day of Yoga'

Organised by:- Student Council

Date:- 21st June, 2021

Time:- 8:30 AM to 9:30 AM

Audience:- VSIT Students

Platform:- MS TEAMS

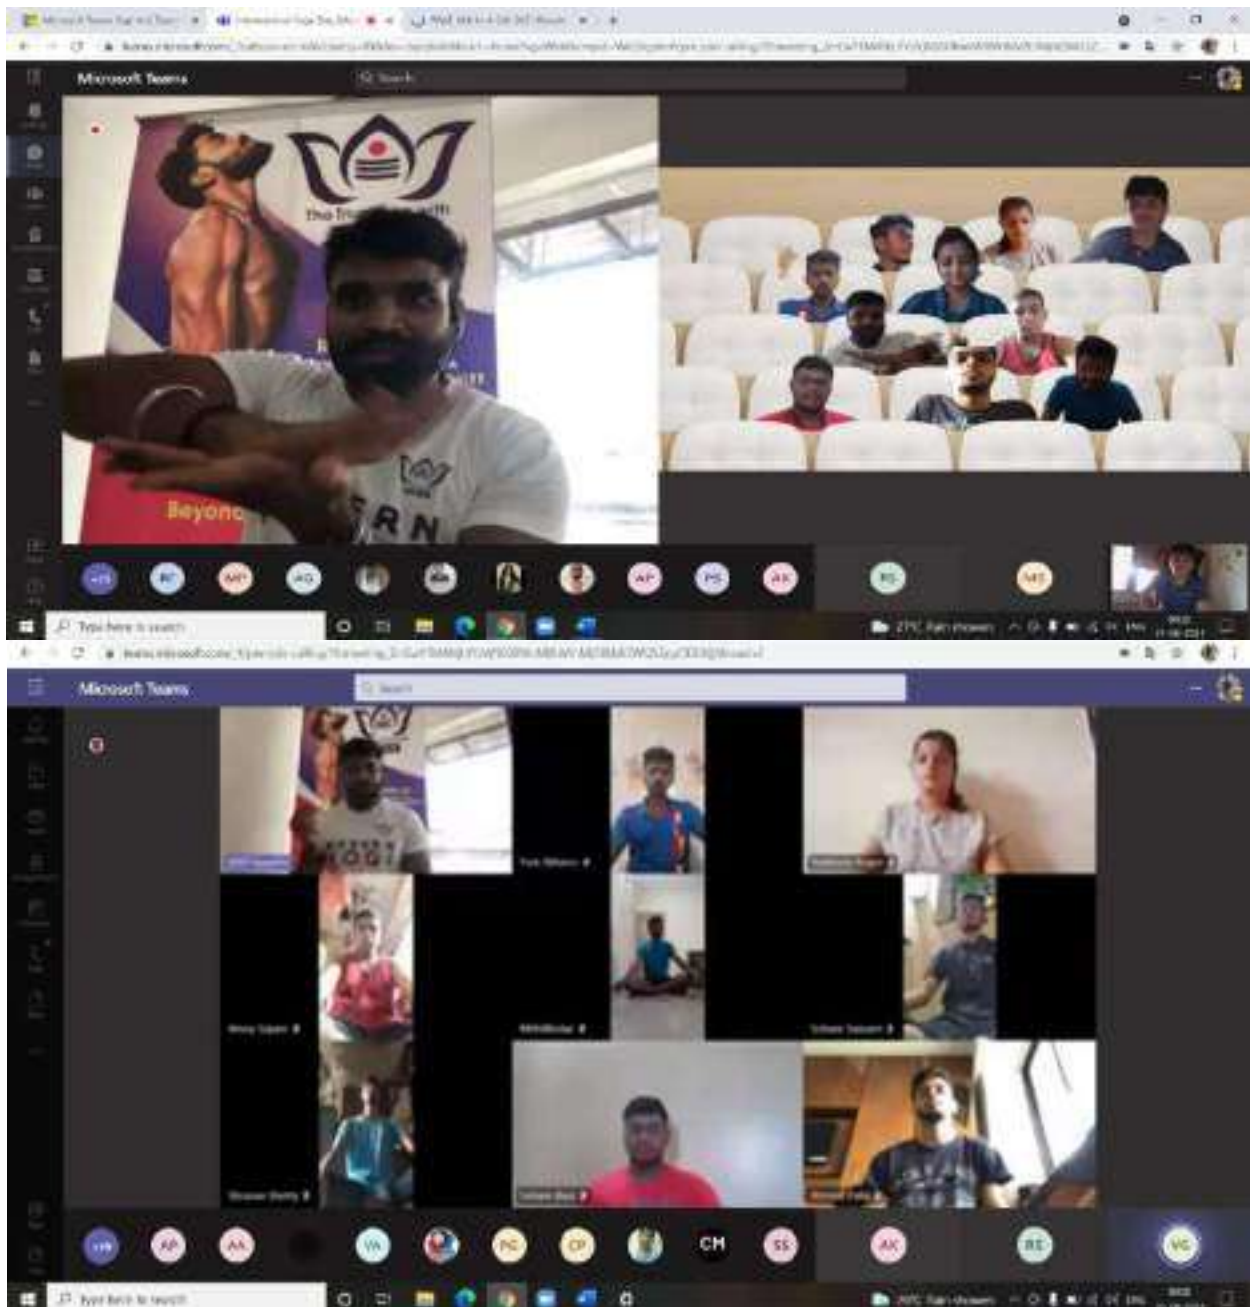

Faculty in charge:- Prof. Ashwini Koyande, Prof. Shreyas Bondre, Prof. Sabir shaikh, Mr. Sanjay Gore

Yoga day was conducted by the Student Council on Microsoft teams with great enthusiasm. It was held on 21st June 2021 from 8:30 am to 9:30 am. The guest for the event was Mr. Shivam Pandey, a Yoga Instructor, and Wellness coach. The International Day of Yoga celebration started by our host and first we had a moment of silence for our legend Late Mr. Milkha Singh known as Flying Sikh. A legacy that inspired a whole nation to aim for excellence. To never give up and chase our dreams. Then our host introduced our guest with the students and then he took over the event and he introduced himself and started with meditation to relax our soul and following with the benefits of meditation was shared by the guest. The guest was interacting with everyone present in the session and he was sharing his experience about how his life changed after performing yoga and after that he continues with different asanas.

The main motive of our council was to spread the message of BE WITH YOGA, BE AT HOME, and spread the skill and knowledge of yoga among the students and teachers. The guest guides us that yoga helps us to build a strong physical, mental, and spiritual health system. In this pandemic students and teachers had an impact on physical and mental health because of that our council decided to conduct the Yoga session so that they can feel better and relax after the session and they can get knowledge as well. At the end of the session, students interacted with the guest and asked the health related questions and the guest also answered all the questions very well, and then our host gave a vote of thanks to the guest. And here is some glimpse of the sessions.

Report on 'Shaniwar Munch Inauguration Report'

Organised by: - Student Council

Date:- 31st July, 2021

Time: - 12:30 PM to 1.30 PM

Audience:- VSIT Students

Platform:- MS TEAMS

Shaniwar Munch inauguration was organised by the student council of VSIT on 30th July 2021, between 12:30pm to 1:30pm. Shaniwar Munch is a platform for students to showcase their talents. In this event we tried to decode the meaning of shaniwar munch letter by letter.

Before starting to decode our shaniwar munch, principal ma'am Mrs. Rohini Kelkar motivated us by her positive words and powerful start to the academic year 2021-22. Our anchor miss Aproova Dalvi from sy-bammc started with throwback video of previous shaniwar munch. Next up starting with the first letter S which stands for Sports in this, the video of every sports event which were done by the students council was shown. Coming up with the next letter H which stands for hip hop, miss Harshika Gupta from Ty-bammc jammed us with her power pack dance performance. Then we came to letter A which stands for Art in which a video of creative team member showcased her beautiful painting process. Next up it was N which stands for nrtya means dance, in which miss Tanishka Ghag from Sy-bammc mesmerised us with her graceful dance performance. After that we had letter I which stands for intellectual games in which we made it a fun quiz and asked participants in the meeting to answer some general knowledge questions by giving answers in the chat box, i still remember the chat box was full of answers which made it more interesting. Next up we had W which stands for workshops in this we showcased a glimpse of previous workshops which were held in shaniwar munch like fluid art, lantern making, stock market etc. Next again we had letter A here it stands for Acting, in which mr. Raj Desai from Ty-bammc gave us goosebumps with his monologue about freedom fighters. Following with our next letter R which stands for rap, in which mr. Sagar Kanojiya from jammed us all with his original rap. Coming with next letter M which stands for Music, in which mr. Shashank Bhosle amazed us with his peaceful voice. Again we came up with letter A but this time it stands for Activity, student council organised many activities on Instagram in this the glimpse of previous activities were shown like Ganesh Chaturthi challenge and Navratri challenge. Next we had letter N which stands for Netflix, in this a short film was shown with a deep life lesson message. Next letter was C which stands for Campus tour, we all miss our campus but watching it online made it feel like we were in there. And last but not the least Our H which stands for the most exciting part of Shaniwar Munch Hunar where every talent is appreciated, in this video of previous Hunar was shown and built more excitement about this year.

With this our anchor gave us a warm thanksgiving speech. It was appreciated by the faculties and students as well. Once again the student council did a wonderful job.

Report On ‘Shaniwar Manch - Pre Independence Day Celebration’

Organised by: - Student Council

Date: 14th Aug 2021

Time: - 12:30 PM - 1.30 PM

Audience: VSIT Students

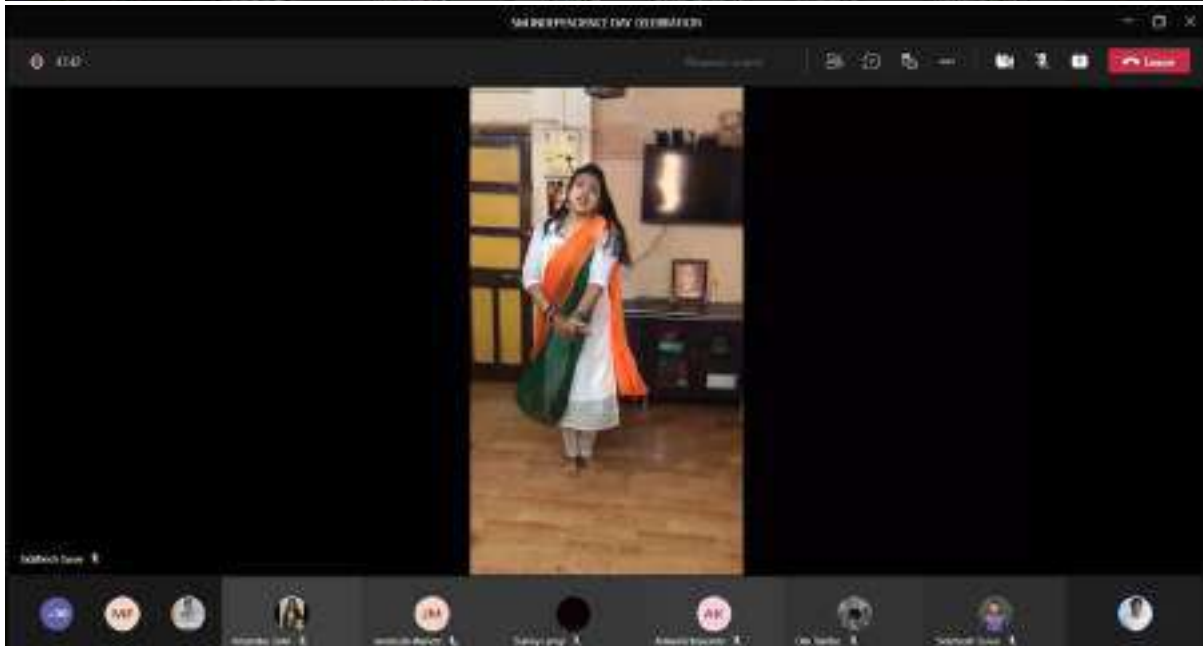

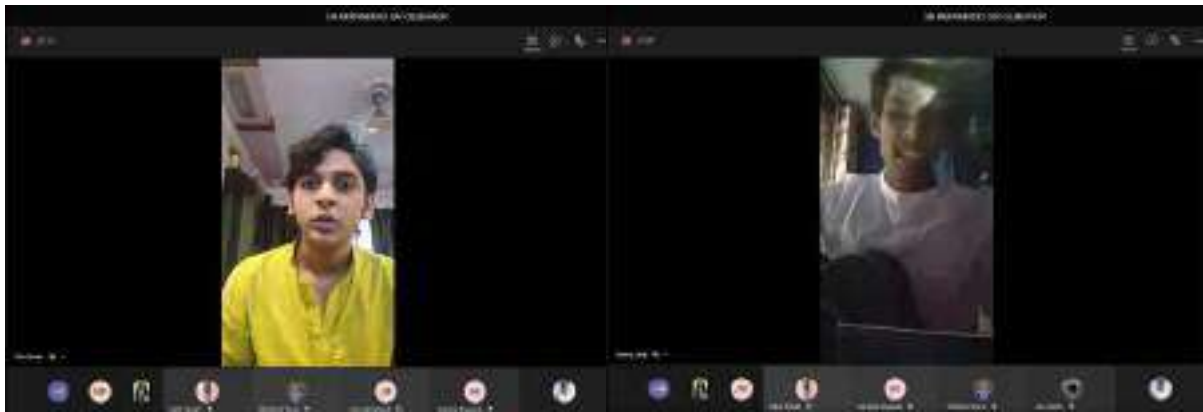

Platform: - MS TEAMS

Faculty in charge:- Prof. Ashwini Koyande, Prof. Shreyas Bondre, Prof. Sabir shaikh, Mr. Sanjay Gore

Vidyalkar School of Information Technology organized a Shaniwar Manch in which the students of VSIT celebrated Independence Day. This event took place on 14th August 2021, Saturday which began at 12:40pm. This event was hosted by one of our Visit student Om Tambe. A small glimpse video of the event was showcased to create a kind of enthusiasm amongst the viewers. The event then commenced by the anchor greeting and welcoming our faculty members and all the attendees. Nation to us is summed up in 52 seconds of our National anthem its enough to tell us what our nation is and thus the very first segment of our event had to be it. All our participants stood together virtually to sing our National Anthem. The event was then continued to the Cultural Programme and the next segment was singing. Here one of VSIT student Sunny Langi sang two songs namely ‘Bharat Humko Jaan se Pyaara Hai’ and ‘Mai Teri Chunariya Lehrai’ and everyone goose bumps as his voice truly gratifying. Later a short video was displayed to the viewers. This video told the students about the supreme sacrifice the great martyrs who gave their lives for the sake of freedom and was about the significance of the historic day it also delivered a message that the freedom was very precious and it is very necessary to preserve it. This informative video made us all proud to call India ‘Our Nation’! The anchor then asked few questions to the participants to check their knowledge about this historic day and the story behind it. Many participants gave answers to all those questions enthusiastically. The next segment was dance where in Tanishka Ghag a student of VSIT performed on the song ‘Ae Watan’ her elegance ruled the show indeed. After the graceful dance and musical performance the only other way one could convey their love towards their country was through a poem. Siddesh Surve then recite a patriotic poem which left all the participants just astonished. The anchor then presented his vote of thanks and the event then came to an end at 1:10pm. Though the celebration was virtual but a feeling of fulfilment and patriotism.

The rules were simple participants just had to tag the student council official Instagram account @studentcouncilvsit and must use the hashtag #navratrichallengevsit on their Instagram stories. All the challenges were started on 7th October and went on till 15th October. All the participants were excited because the challenges were interesting and easy to do

On the first day of the challenge, the participants had to post a self-portrait in the Navratri outfit. On the second day, the participants had to post Garba reels. And thereafter, there was the Maa Durga idol photography challenge in which there were beautifully decorated maa Durga idols photographed. The third-day challenge was a contest in which the participant had to a virtual ramp walk in the authentic Garba dresses and post it as reel or a short video. It was indeed quite colorful. And the last challenge was about posting a story or a reel in which the participant should sing or put on an act related to Navratri.

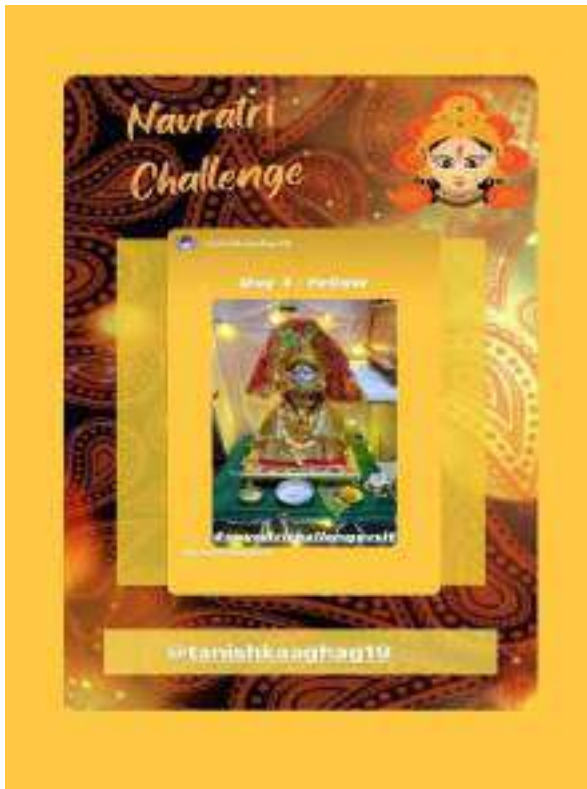

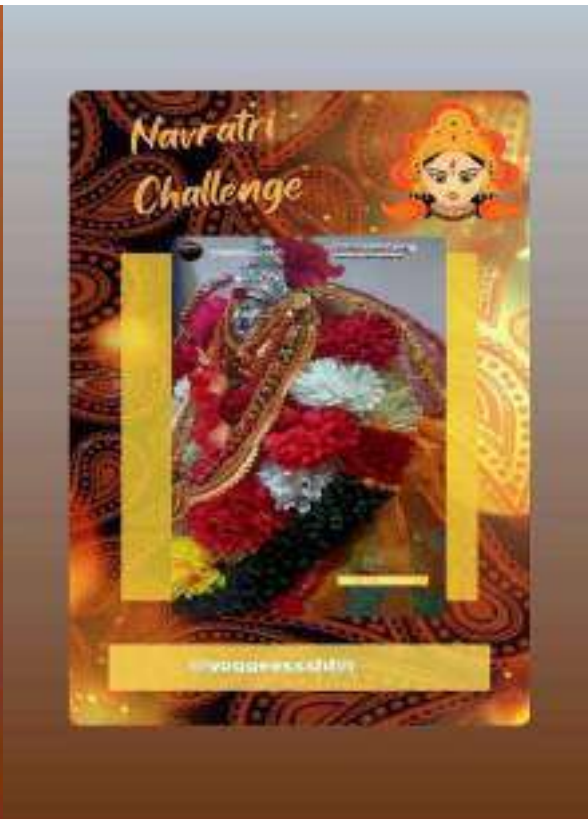

And the end of all the challenges the winners were announced. It was a fun event and was appreciated by the students and the faculty. Once, again the student council did a wonderful job.

The host kick-started the event by introducing Om Patil the resource person for this Shaniwar Manch. He explained everything about this workshop to the audiences. Then he introduced us to his exciting and creative cake making skills that made everyone to appreciate him. He made a three-layered Christmas themed chocolate cake covered with wiped cream. His skills were amazing, and he taught everyone how to make cake perfectly.

Firstly, he made the batter of the cake and then places it in the cake utensil and heated for around 30 minutes like that he heated three of them in different utensil as it was a three layered cake. After that he placed the cake on the turntable, filled it up with wipped cream . After that he gave a shape to the cake, by thin layers of wipped cream like the form snow . Then he made a Christmas tree with the help of a ice cream cone with a covering of chocolate, after wards he made the leaves of the Christmas tree with green coloured wipped cream by adding green colour to it. He decorated the tree and then placed it over the cake , then he made snow mans with the cream, added some sprinkle and placed the chocolate ball for the dressing in the down layers of the cake. The wake was looking delicious. The students asked some questions regarding the making of the cake.

Audience:- VSIT Students

Platform:- Zoom + YouTube Live

Faculty in charge:- Prof. Ashwini Koyande, Prof. Shreyas Bondre, Prof. Sabir shaikh, Mr. Sanjay Gore

Judge:- Sharlaine Menezes

For the third day of Vigour, the VSIT Student Council hosted an event called 'Let Me Hear A Rhyme (Rap)' on March 4, 2022. This event took place from 3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on the Zoom Platform as well as on YouTube live. Aditi Avhad hosted the event, and Sharlaine Menezes, a well-known singer, rapper, and songwriter, served as the judge.

To begin, the event began with the introduction of the judge. First and foremost, she congratulated all of the participants on their participation in this event. She also admired how many students have begun to express an interest in rapping and singing. Because it was a pre-submission event, the judge was shown pre-recorded videos of each participant. The winners, however, have yet to be announced. The rap songs beautifully conveyed the contestants' messages. The judge was drawn in by topics such as love, Rap culture, and politics. In addition, the audience, along with the judge, began to cheer for the participants.

Aside from that, the judge praised all of the contestants for their efforts and provided her with feedback on each performance. The judge's rap livened up the whole thing. Finally, the host expressed gratitude to the principal, vice-principal, our conveners, and the entire student council. Overall, the rap event was an exciting experience.
