We strive to create an environment where each and every student is given the attention necessary to achieve his/her individual success.

We empower the youth through value based education and leadership and therein help the students to contribute to the local and global community in a collaborative and respectful manner, as we truly believe in this Chinese proverb – "I hear and I forget, I see and I remember, I do and I understand". We pride ourselves in instilling each student that Technology can become the wings that will allow the educational world to fly farther and faster than ever before. We believe that "Education is to turn mirrors into windows".

FIRST YEAR ORIENTATION PROGRAM

Vidyalankar Auditorium. The Orientation for Bachelor of Commerce (Banking and Insurance and Bachelor of Mass Media Finance and Marketing was organized at M101 in different slots and B.Sc. I.T(152) as well BMS (108)   in the main auditorium. The main objective of the program was to ease the transition of the students to a new course. It was a great pleasure to witness so many young aspirants with their parents for the Orientation Programme. The program was attended by 36 students of Banking and Insurance--BBI along with 30 parents, similarly 35 students and 23 parents for BMM and 25 students   from Bachelor of Finance and Market with 23 parents made the Orientation a grand success.

The students and their parents were formally welcomed by the college.   The program began with Saraswati Vandana and was followed by the principal's address, Dr. Rohini Kelkar.   The Principal Madam welcomed the parents as well as the students. She specially thanked the parents for selecting Vidyalankar School of Information Technology for their ward and assured the parents for their wards' life and educational safety and security. She spoke about the excellent results of previous years and the efforts made by the students and the faculty members for it.

The greatest takeaway of this Program was the responses from the parents as well as the new entrants which have been recorded through interview. These interviews have been recorded by video shoot. The parents expressed their deep satisfaction over the infrastructure of the college, Cleanliness of the Campus and the ambience maintained on the campus congenial for quality education. Many students as well as parents who were interviewed revealed the fact that the senior students at the college recommended them to seek admission at VSIT. What could be more enthralling for an Institute than to have such an honor by their in-house students as well as the Alumni. Apart from this all the parents liked the well-organized Orientation Program.

Title	Guest lecture on 'Advanced Computer Graphics Applications'
Date	27.01.2020
Resource Person	Dr. Parag Chaudhar

Highlights of the lecture are as follows: 1. Ray Tracing: ☐ In computer graphics, ray tracing is a rendering technique for generating an image by tracing the path of light as pixels in an image plane and simulating the effects of its encounters with virtual objects. The technique is capable of producing a high degree of visual realism, more so than typical scanline rendering methods, but at a greater computational cost This makes ray tracing best suited for applications where taking a relatively long time to render can be tolerated, such as in still computer-generated images, and film and television visual effects (VFX), but more poorly suited to real-time applications such as video games, where speed is critical in rendering each frame. ☐ There are 4 types of rays: Forward, inverse, primary and secondary, shadow rays. 2. Illumination: the phong model ☐ Equation: $I = K_a I_a + K_d I_d + K_s I_s$ Where, kaIa – contribution due to ambient reflection. KdId - contribution due to diffuse reflection. KsIs - contribution due to specular reflection. 3. Ray Tracing in graphics was introduced in 1980's. 4. Ray Tracing was started to be used in movies in late 1990's. 5. Animation.

Title	Guest lecture on 'Least Square Method and its use in Real life problems'
Date	31.01.2020
Resource Person	Dr. Parag Chaudhar

The Least squares method is a form of mathematical regression analysis used to determine the line of best fit for a set of data, providing a visual demonstration of the relationship between the data points. Each point of data represents the relationship between a known independent variable and an unknown dependent variable. The least squares method provides the overall rationale for the placement of the line of best fit among the data points being studied. The guest speaker discussed the following points: ☐ How will the companies select candidates holding the same degree? ☐ Statistics is about getting real life answers and not perfect predictions. ☐ Getting general idea from sample data and making decisions. ☐ Transition from IT to Data Science. ☐ Data science is nothing but statistical version of mathematics. ☐ Machine learning is statistics at its core. ☐ Students are trained and not educated. Lack of understanding of core principles. ☐ Classification of data. ☐ Input- X output-Y: Multiple inputs but only single output. ☐ First step is plotting a graph (scatter plot). ☐ Find an equation of a line that will give an approximate relation between X and Y. ☐ How to find the best fit line. ☐ Prediction interval. ☐ Variance in data. introduced in 1980's. 4. Ray Tracing was started to be used in movies in late 1990's. 5. Animation.

Department	BMS	No. of Students	76

Rashtriya Chemical Fertilizers was established in 1978. They are the producers of urea and other complex fertilizers. It is the 4th largest urea producer after IFFCO. We got a very amazing experience at this plant. We were pretty lucky to be travelling by the ferry this time which just hyped us all to the extreme. It was such an experience. Seeing a plant in action was something very amusing to all of us students present there. They greeted us very humbly and welcomed us with refreshments and a welcome gift which included a handy notepad, pen and a file which we then had to put to use. We got lectures on all the major segments of our BMS courses which is marketing, finance and human resources. After a very interactive session for 2 hours we were headed out of the seminar hall for some exploration around the plant. It was soon lunch time and it was an experience in its own. We were served the basic Indian delicacies and soon in no time we headed out with our safety helmets to witness the urea in making and see around. Talking about this dynamic plant it was so huge and well maintained. All the employees there were in their in proper kit to take control of the environment. At every step we had a dedicated faculty from their side who guided us explaining all the factors we need to understand and abide by. The moment we touched the fresh urea made it was surreal understanding that this is the most important thing for all the crops to growing a proper manner. For almost 8 hours we were enjoying in this plant and learnt so many new things. This time our mode of transport was the waterways as it's already mentioned prior. We settled down for an early evening send off from Alibaug by the ferry back to Mumbai. We as the students of VSIT precisely the BMS department would like to thank our faculty who made our entire journey such a memorable one and most enjoyable.

Every fort was made with different substances like POP, cement, etc. No college stuffs were allowed to be used and so students went out to bring for their own as per their need. For this task 3 days were given to complete it, but due to heavy rains it was hard for the students to work and take care of their fort at the same time, and so they were given more time, till Wednesday 23rd October to complete the fort. This competition did not only show the will to win among the students but also showed how united they were even when divided into teams. Each and every student was concerned about other forts as well and not just theirs. As one of the students said "there's no point in winning without a tough competition". On the day of judgment - 23rd October, the judges– Mr. Sunil Shivaji, Mrs. Rupali Bhosle were super excited to see as well as hear the stories related to the fort. A member from each team explained the judges the concept of their "Killa". It was difficult for the judges to choose one.

Considering the hardwork and creativity the judges finally came to a conclusion where team Diamond was announced as the winner for making the Sindhudurg Fort in an amazing way possible. his was the perfect time for the students to show if they are a "Shahruk" fan or a "Salman" fan. The event started around 12pm with a warm greeting from the host Shubadha. The teams were divided into five. There were four rounds in total. After every round, each team with lowest point loses. All five teams had the zest to challenge one another. The first round was about actors and movies, where the questions there were from the generation of Amitabh Bachchan to Ranveer Singh. The second round was of directors and awards; it was a tough round as not many people know about those working behind the cameras. But some students of Vidyalankar were smart enough to complete the second round as well. The third round was where all the fun was covered in. It was the round of "guess the song", where the start five seconds of the song was played and the participants had to guess the name of the song. This round was where the audience and faculty of VSIT both had a major fun. A chance for the faculty to guess the song was also given by playing the songs of their time. The host made sure that her audience has all the fun they were expecting. The last round but not the least, where only 2 teams were left was the round for "movie rush". Where both the teams will be given a particular actor name and they must keep on naming the movies that particular actor has been in. This was a bit hard as the movies could not be repeated nor one could stop and take more than a min to think about it. It was a difficult one, but "Team 2" with Rajkumar, Payal, Ayub and Pranshu, won the game and proved themselves there, that they are the group of Bollywood lunatics. A mini round of the same was played among the faculty. In the end there was a performance for all that were present, from Maay Marathi- Narendra and his band. They sang different hits of Bollywood keeping everyone in the "jolly bolly" mood. Narendra's performance was the highlight of the event. With an annual population growth of 1.1 per cent and aggregate GDP growth of 6.6 per cent, India's per person GDP is currently growing at 5.5 per cent annually. - BIZCON 20'

Date of activity	5th & 6th March 2020
Venue	Auditoruium

Entrepreneurs are frequently thought of as national assets to be cultivated, motivated, and remunerated to the greatest possible extent. Great entrepreneurs have the ability to change the way we live and work. If successful, their innovations may improve standards of living, and in addition to creating wealth with entrepreneurial ventures, they also create jobs and contribute to a growing economy. Entrepreneurship is thus important for a number of reasons, from promoting social change to driving innovation. New products and services created by entrepreneurs can produce a cascading effect, where it stimulates related businesses or sectors that need to support the new venture, furthering economic development. For example, a few information technology companies made up the IT industry in India during the 1990s. The industry quickly expanded and many other sectors benefited from it. Businesses in associated industries—such as call center operations, network maintenance companies, and hardware providers—flourished. In order to foster such entrepreneurial spirit, UDYAM E-CELL of VSIT witnessed their annual flagship business conclave, namely BIZCON'20 with a motive of Come, Learn and Conquer. The entire conclave was bifurcated into two days which was on 5th and 6th of March,2020. The first day had the Inauguration, Keynote session, V-Startup finals and War of Words; whereas the schedule for second included Vyapar, Case study competition, Biz quiz, Tech battle, AdWars and Ipl Auction. 11 KEYNOTE: Our keynote speaker was none other than Mr. Ravikant Sabnavis who is the Executive Vice President of Star TV along with our chairperson Mr. Ashwini Kakkar, the Executive Vice Chairman of Mercury Travels. The session was initiated by inaugurating the event by our Vice principal Mr. Vijay Gawde. With thunderous energy, both the speakers explained how effective the outlook & amp; technique are when applied in business, by recalling some personal experiences when they applied it. With this, they continued to talk about the entrepreneurial mind-set & amp; how misinformed new entrepreneurs are when they enter this profession. With such exceptional speakers motivating; guiding, the students were extremely hyped and excited for the upcoming events of Bizcon'20.

Each year brings with itself new joys and opportunities. Academic initiatives are undertaken with great enthusiasm and commitment by the Team at VSIT and this inspires students to willingly participate in the teaching-learning experience, in the classroom and beyond. The academic and holistic interactions across generations in this campus mould the future of the country. Changes are welcome in a campus groomed to grow and remould itself every year. From research conferences to cultural festivities, from expanding infrastructure to growing class sizes, from traditional to tech-empowered teaching methodologies, the sky is the limit at Vidyalankar School of Information Technology.
